Local Car Dealer and Bloodworks Northwest Team Up To Address Urgent Winter Blood Shortages

Donate Blood, Save Lives, and Win a New Car

Seattle, WA (January 14, 2020) – In an effort to maintain an adequate blood supply through the tough winter months, Bloodworks Northwest and the Haselwood Auto Group in Bremerton, WA are offering blood donors who come into any Bloodworks Northwest donor center or blood drive between now and March 17, 2020, a chance to win a new car! Haselwood Auto Group, and its dealerships are sponsoring a chance for one lucky blood donor to win an incredible new car when they donate blood with Bloodworks. And not just any car – the winner will have their choice of car among nine (9) pre-selected new vehicles in the Haselwood Auto Group inventory. Every time you donate blood with Bloodworks now through St. Patrick’s Day (March 17, 2020), you’ll be automatically entered for a chance to win.

“Bloodworks Northwest and the Haselwood Auto Group are dedicated to making a difference in the lives of others,” says Bloodworks Northwest’s President and CEO Curt Bailey. He adds, “We’re both on a mission to better our community, especially now when bad weather makes it hard for donors to travel.”

“Your blood is an invaluable gift for local patients. Share it,” says Haselwood Auto Group’s COO Rob Colon. “We believe there is never a wrong time to do the right thing. Creating remarkable experiences for each other and our communities is the foundation and cornerstone of our shared values. This is foremost in everything we do, including our partnerships to help drive support for great causes. We’re urging our customers to share in our values by donating with Bloodworks Northwest.”

Donating blood only takes one hour from registration to cookie. Most people in good health, at least 18 years old, and weighs at least 110 pounds may donate whole blood every 56 days as long as you meet other donor criteria. Every pint donated has the potential to help three people at hospitals across the Pacific Northwest, including Harrison Medical Center in Silverdale and Naval Hospital Bremerton. Patient being treated for cancer, surgery, or trauma rely on donated blood.

Donors can find locations of donor centers and drives or make appointments online at BloodworksNW.org/winacar, by calling 800-398-7888, or by texting winacar to 91985 to learn more and download the Bloodworks App.
