

Mark A Hulak, MBA

Director of Mergers & Acquisitions PACCAR, Inc.

Mark is a seasoned and successful business professional with more than 25 years of experience leading acquisitions, investments, joint ventures and divestitures. He is recognized for his ability to leverage exceptional critical thinking and problem-solving skills and possesses in-depth knowledge in the information technology space.

Mark is currently Director of Mergers and Acquisitions at PACCAR Inc., a global technology company that designs and manufactures premium quality light, medium, and heavy duty commercial vehicles sold worldwide under the Kenworth, Peterbilt and DAF nameplates.

Prior to that, he led the mergers and acquisitions practice at OneAccord Capital Advisors, an investment bank serving private companies, and previously, spent five years as the Senior Director of Corporate Development for Microsoft. Mark also spent six years as the Senior Director for Corporate Development & Strategy for BEA Systems in San Jose. Other organizations he has worked for include Hewlett-Packard, J.P. Morgan, and Goldman Sachs.

Currently, Mark serves on the Yale Science and Engineering Association Board and the Advisory Council of the Music Center of the Northwest. He is an emeritus board member and past president of the King County Library System Foundation Board. He joined the Bloodworks Northwest Board of Trustees in 2017.

Mark holds an MBA from Harvard Graduate School of Business and a BS from Yale College.