

Andrew C. Corrigan

Office Managing Partner, Portland Healthcare & Life Sciences,
San Francisco Hub Leader
KPMG LLP

Drew is a partner in the Audit practice of KPMG's Portland office with more than 29 years of experience, primarily in the healthcare and higher education industries. In addition to leading KPMG's Portland office, he is the partner in charge of its healthcare and life sciences practice covering ten offices in the western United States.

Drew also serves as engagement partner for a variety of not-for-profit organizations, including foundations, hospitals, and large multi-hospital health systems. In addition to his audit background, his experience includes transaction due diligence and involvement in many significant financing transactions.

Drew participates in various local and national initiatives of KPMG, including the development and delivery of training at firmwide and local Pacific Northwest events, and participating in the firm's national Quality Performance Review Program. He is an active member in the Oregon and Washington Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) chapters and provides their local Oregon chapter with an annual accounting and audit technical update.

Drew was elected to the Bloodworks Board of Trustees in 2023. He formerly served as Board treasurer at CASA for Children and at Bicycle Transportation Alliance in Portland and as a Board member of West Hills Christian School.

He earned his BA from Pacific Lutheran University and is a licensed CPA in Oregon and Washington.
